

University Golf Club Business Women (UGCBW) is a group of active business women who enjoy the game of golf, networking, camaraderie, and a little competition along the way. When you complete the new member application (click new applicant tab top right hand corner) you will automatically be placed on our applicants waitlist, in order of the date of your application. When vacancies arise, applicants at the top of the list will be contacted.

About our Club

UGC is a beautiful, traditional 18 hole golf course with long narrow fairways and a rating and slope of 72.0 /120 from the Red Tee's (5541 yards). UGCBW has a capacity of 80 members and operates within the University Golf Club. Our annual membership is currently $200 payable December 01st and is non-refundable. New applicants are assessed a one time $50 registration fee. We have tee times every Saturday morning April through October starting at 9:30 am. Green fees are approximately $78.00 plus taxes during the summer season. Most of our groups correspondence and communication is done via email and through our website. It is each members responsibility to frequently check for updates.

Membership

- To qualify as a member of the University Business Women (UGC-BW), you must have a declarable income, enjoy the game of golf and have an established handicap or be prepared to establish one prior to membership acceptance.
- Applicants with an established handicap must provide their Golf Canada membership number or other verified online handicap program membership, or 5 attested (18 hole rounds) within the past 12 months.
- Applicants without an established handicap are encouraged to establish a handicap while on the waitlist, to ensure an accurate handicap at the start of the season. Applicants will not be accepted from the waitlist without 5 attested cards (18 hole rounds) played within the past 12 months.
- Our club is run by volunteers and all members must be willing to participate in some capacity, on one of our many committee's or on our executive team, after their first year.
- A minimum of eight games must be played with our group during the season to maintain your membership, and to qualify for the Club Championship

What's Next?

We accept new members from our waitlist annually as of February 01st, based on date of application and space available once existing membership have confirmed their status for the following season. New applicants are assessed a $50 one time applicant registration fee. When a spot is available we will contact you and you will have 2 weeks to confirm your interest by paying your annual dues in the amount of $200.00. If you have multiple memberships and you declare UGC as your secondary club, your dues will be $152.00 as BC Golf fee's are charged to the players primary club only.

Thank you for your interest in our club. Once you have completed your application you will be contacted by our membership chair.
